

1. LIFE GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

What is your master plan? For “For me to live is _____.”
How would the world lead you in answering that question?

2. What is your master’s plan for “For me to live is _____.”
If there is a difference in the two answers, what is the cause of that difference and what needs to be done in your life to align them to be the same?

3. Why is God a jealous God? What does this say about how you should view your own life and priorities?

4. Read 1 Kings 18:20-21. Why did the people say nothing? Why does the world find it so hard to follow God? Why is it that some Christians find it hard to submit to God?

5. Are you content wherever you are, including your current situation? How does living for Jesus impact your contentment?

6. Do you fear the future? Why or why not?

7. Do you find that your life is being fruitful for God’s kingdom? What needs to change to make it more fruitful?
